Note(s):

(1) In accordance with direction from the Crown Central Agency Committee, formerly known as the Standing Committee on Crown Corporations, SaskPower is required to disclose a list of payments for goods and services with a minimum threshold of $50,000, except those items and categories where:

A) There is a legitimate need to protect commercially sensitive information;

B) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to prejudice the competitive position of or interfere with the contractual obligations of the Crown corporation or a third party; or

C) Disclosure is prohibited by law, including the provisions of the Freedom of Information and Privacy Act.

To facilitate determining which suppliers would qualify under this exemption, SaskPower sent letters to all suppliers to whom the Corporation had made payments in excess of $50,000. The letter requested that the supplier comment on whether they felt disclosure of payments to their company should be exempted based on the above criteria. The items exempted in this section are based on the responses SaskPower received from its suppliers.

(2) Suppliers that have claimed exemption based on a combination of A, B and/or C above.

(3) These are payments made "in trust" to legal firms for remittance to third parties. Disclosure is prohibited by law based on the confidentiality of the agreements.

(4) Disclosure of these payments would be considered in violation of the NERC Guidelines Section 1200 on Cyber Security and is therefore prohibited by law.

(5) The June 17th minutes of the Standing Committee on Crown Corporations stated that SaskPower would not be disclosing the power purchase agreements to the Crown Central Agency Committee.

(6) Payments are on a cash basis.

(1) In accordance with direction from the Crown Central Agency Committee, formerly known as the Standing Committee on Crown Corporations, NorthPoint is required to disclose a list of payments for goods and services with a minimum threshold of $50,000, except those items and categories where:

1) There is a legitimate need to protect commercially sensitive information;
2) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to prejudice the competitive position of or interfere with the contractual obligations of the Crown corporation or a third party; or
3) Disclosure is prohibited by law, including the provisions of the Freedom of Information and Privacy Act.

To facilitate determining which suppliers would qualify under this exemption, NorthPoint sent letters to all suppliers to whom the Corporation had made payments in excess of $50,000. The letter requested that the supplier comment on whether they felt disclosure of payments to their company should be exempted based on the above criteria. The items exempted in this section are based on the responses NorthPoint received from its suppliers.

(2) The June 17th minutes of the Standing Committee on Crown Corporations stated that SaskPower (NorthPoint) would not be disclosing the power purchase agreements to the Crown Central Agency Committee.

		$ 640,519,028

In accordance with direction from the Standing Committee on Crown Corporations, SaskEnergy is required to disclose a list of payments for goods and services with a minimum threshold of $50,000, except those items and categories where:

1. There is a legitimate need to protect commercially sensitive information;
2. Disclosure could reasonably be expected to prejudice the competitive position of or interfere with the contractual obligations of the Crown corporation or a third party; or
3. Disclosure is prohibited by law, including the provisions of The Freedom of Information and Privacy Act.

To facilitate determining which suppliers would qualify under this exemption, the Corporation sent letters to all suppliers to whom SaskEnergy had made payments in excess of $50,000. In accordance with direction from the Standing Committee on Crown Corporations, SaskEnergy is required to disclose a list of payments for goods and services with a minimum threshold of $50,000, except those items and categories where:

1. There is a legitimate need to protect commercially sensitive information;
2. Disclosure could reasonably be expected to prejudice the competitive position of or interfere with the contractual obligations of the Crown corporation or a third party; or
3. Disclosure is prohibited by law, including the provisions of The Freedom of Information and Privacy Act.

To facilitate determining which suppliers would qualify under this exemption, the Corporation sent letters to all suppliers to whom SaskEnergy had made payments in excess of $50,000. The letter requested that the supplier reply if they felt disclosure of payments to them should be exempted based on the above criteria. The items exempted in this section include the responses SaskEnergy received from its suppliers.

To comply with the Freedom of Information and Privacy Act, the Corporation sent letters to all suppliers to whom SGI had made payments in excess of $50,000. The letter requested that the supplier comment on whether they felt disclosure of payments to their company should be exempted based on the following criteria:

1) There is a legitimate need to protect commercially sensitive information;
2) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to prejudice the competitive position of or interfere with the contractual obligations of the Crown corporation or a third party; or
3) Disclosure is prohibited by law, including the provisions of the Freedom of Information and Privacy Act.

The items exempted in this section are based on the responses SGI received from these suppliers.
